$4,000 Scholarship
Alexis VanWinkle
Glenpool High

"From a young age, I loved going to school. I have an insatiable desire to learn and my teachers, both past and present, have always kept that fire inside me burning. I have hopes to one day pursue a career in education. I want to provide my future students with the same knowledge that I have yearned to have for much of my life."

$1,000 Scholarship
Harini Senthil
Jenks High

"Community service and philanthropy are essential to my identity. I enjoy volunteering at the Jenks Aquarium, Tulsa Zoo, and Emergency Infant Services regularly. Additionally, I also serve as a math tutor for Jenks High School students. My aspiration to make the world a better place has also influenced my potential career plans. I want to become a psychiatrist in the future."

$1,000 Scholarship
Reagan Fowler
Broken Arrow High

"I aspire to become a teacher. I want to be like the teachers who have been there to listen when I felt no one else wanted to, and help the students so many other people considered to be "lost causes". I am also Native American and try to give back as much as I can to my people. I want to show my students the same love and caring that was given to me in my time in school."

$1,000 Scholarship
Darlene Davis
Broken Arrow High

"As a first-generation Mexican American college means a whole new world of opportunities and advancements for my future career and goals. My goal is to break the cycle of having a lower education by receiving my bachelors in general health then pursuing a career in nursing specializing in pediatrics."
